REMARKS

Applicants thank the Examiner for the courtesy extended during the telephonic conference on June 23, 2005 in which various amendments to the claims were discussed to more clearly define features of the claims in view of the requirements of 35 U.S.C. §101. Applicants submit that the amendments presented herein are for purposes of clarifying the claim language, do not alter the scope of the claims, and are not being presented to distinguish from any of the cited references. Applicants have incorporated all of the amendments discussed with the Examiner, and the Examiner believes that these amendments will place all of the pending claims in condition for allowance.
